Having considered the matter, the Court finds that this Protective Order should be and hereby is granted as follows:

1

Confidential Documents are truly confidential, they should first contact the Producing Party to resolve the issue. If the issue cannot be resolved, Plaintiff's Attorney may petition the Court for an order declaring that the document is not subject to the conditions of this Protective Order. The Plaintiff's Attorney shall be responsible for instructing witnesses, consultants, and outside counsel assisting in preparation of the case that disclosure of the Confidential Documents is prohibited as set forth herein.

2. Qualified Recipients. For the purposes of this Order, persons authorized to receive "CONFIDENTIAL" information (hereinafter "qualified recipient") shall include only:

- a. The Parties, including any members, council members, officers, board members, directors, employees, or other legal representatives of the parties;
- b. Legal counsel representing the Defendants and legal counsel representing the Plaintiff, and members of the paralegal, secretarial, or clerical staff who are employed by, retained by, or assisting such counsel;
- c. Consulting or testifying expert witnesses assisting any legal counsel in the preparation of this case and staff and assistants employed by the consultant or testifying expert;
- d. The parties' insurers and their staff and assistants, members, officers, board members, directors or other legal representatives;
- e. The Court, and Court staff, and any court reporter or typist recording or transcribing testimony, and jurors;
- f. Any mediator retained by the parties in an effort to mediate and/or settle the claims of this action and members of the mediator's staff and assistants.

3. Maintenance of Confidentiality. CONFIDENTIAL information shall be held in confidence by each qualified recipient to whom it is disclosed, shall be used only for purposes of this action, and shall not be disclosed to any person who is not a qualified recipient. Each party, each qualified recipient, and all counsel representing any party, shall use their best efforts to maintain all produced CONFIDENTIAL information in such a manner as to prevent access, even at hearing or trial, by individuals who are not qualified recipients. Nothing herein shall prevent disclosure beyond the terms of this Protective Order if the party claiming confidentiality consents in writing to such disclosure.

4. Copies. CONFIDENTIAL information shall not be copied or otherwise reproduced by the receiving party, except for transmission to qualified recipients, without the written permission of the producing party, or, in the alternative, by further Order of the Court. However, nothing herein shall restrict a qualified recipient from making working copies, abstracts, digests, and analyses of CONFIDENTIAL information under the terms of this Order.

5. Filing Under Seal. All documents of any nature (including any of the foregoing documents as well as any other documents, including, but not limited to, briefs, motions, memoranda, transcripts, and the like) that are filed with the Court may be filed under seal upon proper motion.

6. Depositions. The following procedures shall be followed at all depositions to protect the integrity of all CONFIDENTIAL information:

- a. Only qualified recipients may be present at a deposition in which CONFIDENTIAL information is disclosed or discussed.
- b. All testimony elicited during a deposition at which CONFIDENTIAL information is disclosed or discussed is deemed to be CONFIDENTIAL information.
- c. Material designated as Confidential may be used at a nonparty deposition only if necessary to the testimony of the witness.

7. Trial. Prior to the trial of this action, the attorneys for the parties shall meet and attempt to agree on an appropriate form of order to submit to the Court regarding the confidential status, if any, to be afforded documents, testimony or other information disclosed during the course of the trial.

8. Return or Destruction of Documents. Upon final termination of this proceeding, including all appeals, each party shall make reasonable efforts to destroy all materials containing CONFIDENTIAL information. If the party is unable to destroy all materials, the materials shall be returned to the Defendants or their counsel. This Protective Order shall survive the final termination of this action, and shall be binding on the parties and their legal counsel at all times in the future.

9. Modification. This Order is entered without prejudice to the right of any party to apply to the Court for additional protective, or to modify, relax or rescind any restrictions imposed by this Order when convenience or necessity requires.

10. Additional Parties to Litigation. In the event additional parties are joined in this action, they shall not have access to CONFIDENTIAL information until the newly joined party, by its counsel, has executed and, at the request of any party, filed with the Court, its agreement to be fully bound by this Order.

DATED this 31st day of October, 2017.

BY THE COURT:

s/ Susan M. Bazis
United States Magistrate Judge
